Your tablet, your style, your pace

It's not just a sleeve, it's the way you carry your world. Designed for those who are always on the go, this tablet case combines protection and functionality with a touch of style. Its main compartment keeps your device up to 12 inches secure, while its exterior pockets – one vertical and one horizontal – give you quick access to what you need. With smart details like an internal pocket and a zippered stretch-mesh pocket, everything has its place. Made from durable, waterproof materials, and with an adjustable strap to carry it however you like. Because moving freely has never been easier... or more stylish.
